PROSPECTUR-On or before the eighteenth of March next the undersigned will commence, in the city of Knoxville, the publicaof March next the undersigned will commence, in the city of Knoxville, the publication of a newspaper, daily and weekly, to be styled the Knoxville Tribune. The Tribune, politically, will be Democratic, but as free to censure errors or wrongs within its own party as to expose and condema nurtful policies and acts on the part of its opponents. In its general tone and conduct it will be conservative and national, and, in such spirit, will labor for the deserved success of the Democratic party in the states and nation, as now opposed by its Republican adversaries. Locally, it will earnestly promulgate such ideas and advocate such means as may be deemed best promotive of the development, advancement and general prosperity of the section from which it will claim its support. The Daily Tribune will be a full-sized seven-column paper, containing each day the telegraphic news from all parts of the world, complets commercial reports, and a greater quantity of miscellaneous reading matter than any daily paper in East Tennessee, north Georgia, or southwestern Virginia. The Weekly Tribune will be an eight-page paper, filled with choice editorial and miscellaneous matter, embracing all the departments of approved journalism—making it a first-class family newspaper. The local and business departments of the Tribune will be in charge of gentlemen of welf-known experience, capacity and integrity. The Tribune office will be new in its entire outfit, comprising also a well-selected job office.
